Sojourners Alliance

opening doors for those in need

NEWS!

Changes to the program that provides funding to Sojourners Alliance have been halted by a preliminary injunction.

In mid-November of 2025, the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) announced that they would be making changes to the program that funds organizations like Sojourners Alliance. The HUD planned to revise the eligibility criteria for organizations to receive federal funding. This new criteria would severely limit the assistance individuals would be able to receive from organizations such as Sojourners Alliance.

Thankfully, these changes have been put on hold for now, but the HUD plans to revisit this issue once the hold is removed.

Sojourners Alliance will operate as if these changes will be in affect during the upcoming fiscal year.

This is why local support is crucial in our success for addressing housing issues in our region.
